INSTITUTE GUIDELINES POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Release and Waiver

In consideration of being permitted to participate in the Institute program, the participant releases and discharges the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and its directors, officers, and employees from any and all claims, demands, actions, or damages of any kind arising in any manner from the participant's involvement in the Institute program. The participant also understands and assumes any risks associated with participation in the Institute program. To maintain high standards of scholarship and behavior, Institute reserves the right to reject or terminate any enrollment.

Absence

In order to successfully complete the Institute program requirements and to receive the IOM graduate recognition, a participant must make up any classroom instruction not attended through Institute instruction only (i.e., sitting down with an instructor one-on-one, writing a paper, or making class up at another Institute site). One member of each Board of Regents will be responsible to implement this policy onsite and report any deficiencies by any attendee to Institute staff.

Damage and Destruction of Property

Participants agree to be responsible for all damage caused to persons or property during the entire duration of Institute and to indemnify and hold harmless the U.S. Chamber and its officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates, successors, and assigns against and from any and all demands, damages, liabilities, and losses, or any pending or completed actions, claims, suits, complaints, proceedings, or investigations (including reasonable attorney's fees and other costs or expenses) to which the U.S. Chamber may be or become subject as a result or arising out of any negligent act or omission by the participant relating to his or her participation in Institute.

Handling Concerns

Institute is intended to be a safe, educational, and productive professional development experience for all participants. Any concerns should be brought to the attention of a Class Advisor, a member of the Board of Regents, or a member of the Institute staff promptly. Institute will do its best to resolve concerns quickly.

Handouts and Photocopies

Participants have online access to presentations, recommended reading, and handouts for registered classes. Institute will provide workbook style handouts only in the classroom. To honor the rights of the authors of these materials, Institute cannot make copies without proper authorization and copyright permissions and does not provide handouts to participants for courses they did not attend.

Harassment

Institute maintains an environment that fosters learning and professional development for everyone who attends. Harassing behavior in any form, including sexual harassment, will not be tolerated. Harassing behavior will result in appropriate disciplinary action, which may include dismissal from the program with no reimbursement of expenses. Any concerns should be brought to the attention of a Class Advisor, a member of the Board of Regents, or a member of the Institute staff promptly. We will do our best to resolve concerns quickly.

Logo Usage

Use of the U.S. Chamber logo or seal is not permitted under any condition by participants in the Institute program. The Institute logo may be used only after receiving express written consent from U.S. Chamber staff. Permission to use the Institute logo will be limited to specific cases, and the actual use must be approved in advance and in writing by Institute staff.

Upon consent, the Institute logo must only appear in Chamber blue (PMS color 294), black, or white and bear the registered trademark symbol. In addition, the logo cannot be distorted in any way. The following is not permitted under any circumstances: alteration of the logo; removal of elements or the trademark symbol; personalization; flipping, inverting, skewing, or stretching the logo; breaking apart or segmenting the logo; or adding elements.

The Chamber reserves the right to withdraw approval at any time.

Promotional Materials

By enrolling in Institute, participants grant Institute the right to use, in promotional materials, their likeness or voice as recorded on or transferred to videotape, film, slides, audiotape, or other media.

Smoking

Smoking is not permitted inside any building at Institute. Smoking is permitted only in designated outdoor areas.

Wireless Communications

Electronic technology is allowed for classroom purposes to enhance learning

By Train

Take AMTRAK to the 30th Street Station in Philadelphia. Ask the attendant to direct you to the Suburban Trains. Take the R5 Paoli Local train to Villanova. The train stops directly on our campus. NOTE: You can save money by buying your local train ticket before boarding.

By Bus

When your bus arrives in Philadelphia, ask the attendant to direct you to the train station at Market East. Take the R5 Paoli Local train to Villanova.

By Plane

Arrange to fly into Philadelphia International Airport, which is located 30 minutes by car from the Villanova campus. From the airport you have three options:

Rental Car (or other private transportation): When leaving the airport, follow the signs for I-95 South. Take I-95 South to Exit 7 (I-476 North-Plymouth Meeting). Take I-476 North to Exit 13 (US 30 - St. Davids/Villanova). Go right/east on Route 30 (Lancaster Avenue) for 3/4 mile and at the fourth traffic light turn right onto Ithan Avenue and into the main parking lot.

Train: Ask the attendant at the airport baggage counter to direct you to the train station. Purchase a combination ticket to the Villanova Station. All trains go to the 30th Street Station in Philadelphia. At 30th Street, change trains and board the R5 Paoli Local train which will take you directly to the Villanova campus.

Airport Shuttle Service: Concord Coach is the carrier which will transport guests from the airport to the University via van shuttle service. For costs and more information, phone (610) 525-0513
