

U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FOUNDATION

Karyn K. MacRae, IOM, CAE, CMP

Director, Institute for Organization Management,
U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation

Karyn K. MacRae is director of Institute for Organization Management, a four-year educational program on nonprofit management of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation. MacRae is responsible for setting the strategic direction and vision of Institute, in addition to managing the day-to-day operations of the program. She serves as the liaison to Institute's volunteer groups—the National Board of Trustees, five Boards of Regents, and Class Advisors—and also works on program logistics including contract management, student housing, and graduation.

Institute, the industry leader in nonprofit education, is an inspiring and thought-provoking program for chamber and association executives seeking to expand their peer groups, learn about industry trends, and meet some of the country's most innovative business thinkers. The program, which meets one week per year over a four-year period, is held at five different university locations across the country.

MacRae has ten years of experience in the nonprofit association and chamber industries, including specialties in the fields of hands-on volunteer management and meeting and event management.

MacRae received her Bachelor of Business Administration in hospitality and tourism management from James Madison University in 2006. She is a 2010 graduate of Institute for Organization Management and received her Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) credential in 2011 and her Certified Association Executive (CAE) credential in 2014.

Institute for Organization Management is the professional development program of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation. It is the premier nonprofit professional development program for association and chamber professionals, fostering individual growth through interactive learning and networking opportunities.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation is dedicated to strengthening America's long-term competitiveness. We educate the public on the conditions necessary for business and communities to thrive, how business positively impacts communities, and emerging issues and creative solutions that will shape the future.
