

Carly Turk

Senior Coordinator, Institute for Organization Management,
U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation

Carly Turk is senior coordinator of Institute for Organization Management, a four-year educational program on nonprofit management of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation. She assists attendees with the registration process and manages special projects.

Institute, the industry leader in nonprofit education, is an inspiring and thought-provoking program for association and chamber executives seeking to expand their peer groups, learn about industry trends, and meet some of the country's most innovative business thinkers. The program, which meets one week per year over a four-year period, is held at five different university locations across the country.

Before joining the Foundation, Turk was as a field representative, staff assistant, and legislative correspondent in the office of Rep. Mike Kelly (R-PA).

Turk is a 2011 graduate of James Madison University with a B.B.A. in business management and a minor in political science.

Institute for Organization Management

1615 H Street, NW
Washington, DC 20062
202-463-5399
institute.uschamber.com

Institute for Organization Management is the professional development program of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation. It is the premier nonprofit professional development program for association and chamber professionals, fostering individual growth through interactive learning and networking opportunities.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation is dedicated to strengthening America's long-term competitiveness. We educate the public on the conditions necessary for business and communities to thrive, how business positively impacts communities, and emerging issues and creative solutions that will shape the future.