There are more than one million nonprofit organizations in the USA.

Bob has studied thousands of them to develop best practices. He started his career in Washington DC working with Presidential Classroom. He went on to build an association management company in Tallahassee, FL.

He is on the faculty for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation. He has worked in Amman, Jordan, Tokyo, Japan and Minsk, Belarus to help organizations. He received “Association Partner of the Year” award from Association Trends Magazine.

He has authored books on association management. To improve management he created the Association Self-Auditing Process, used by more than 20,000 organizations. He believes that nonprofit organizations should be as efficient as any commercial business.

He has received awards for promoting association excellence and working in professional development. He has worked for Hyatt Hotels in Florida for 30 years.

He’s been dubbed the “Martha Stewart of association management” for providing tips and templates for making management easier.

These are available free on his website at www.nonprofitcenter.com.

Bob’s career passions are demonstrated in two principles:

- Promoting the impact of nonprofits in America.
- Sharing the tools for successful associations and chambers.
