Claire Louder has been a chamber and association executive since 1989, including most recently 10 years with the West Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce in Odenton, Maryland. She is passionate about helping organizations succeed through establishing strategic direction and adopting industry best practices. She is a 2009 graduate of the U.S. Chamber's Institute for Organization Management (Northeast), and a Certified Association Executive (CAE). She is a past member of the Northeast Board of Regents, a past President of the Maryland Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives (MACCE), and the 2012 recipient of MACCE's Chamber Executive of the Year award.

She recently formed her own consulting company, Louder NonProfit Strategies, LLC, to provide strategic planning, benchmarking, and mentoring to chamber and association clients. As the recent executive of a small chamber, she seeks to offer such services at a price point affordable to smaller organizations.
