

DAVID K. AAKER, IOM, ACE

President

Aaker and Associates

Rancho Mirage, CA

davidkaaker@aol.com

760-323-4600

David is an internationally recognized motivational keynote speaker and trainer in customer service, leadership, and communication.

He served in Organizational Management as a Chamber of Commerce President and CEO from 1981 to 2004.

David is a 1989 Graduate of the United States Chamber of Commerce Institute of Organization Management at Boulder Colorado.

By invitation from the US Chamber, David has been a faculty member for over 14 years for the Institute program and teaches courses on Management, Leadership, Customer Service and Ethics for Non Profit Organizations and Associations at five Universities nationwide.

David was presented two “Hall of Fame” awards for Community and Economic Development and Tourism Promotion from the city of Palmdale and The City of Palm Springs Bureau of Tourism during his tenure as a Chamber of Commerce President and CEO for 20 years.

David’s nationwide clients include State Departments of Tourism, American Indian Resorts and Casino’s, Hotels, along with State and Local Chambers of Commerce, CVB’s, United States Air Force, Associations, Organizations, Municipal and Sovereign Nation Governments in North America and also Private sector corporations.

David has been in the Chamber Management and non-profit training arena for over 35 years.

In May of 2009, Mr. Aaker was named “Among America’s Best Speakers” by Sky Radio on American Airlines, and was featured on 42,000 flights worldwide.

He is also a published author in 2 books. “Success Simplified”, a new anthology of 24 nationally selected speakers and “50 Unforgettable Speakers”, both published by Insight Publishing.