Justin Patton is an Executive Leadership Coach who is on a bold mission to help leaders communicate with stronger presence and impact. He believes everything meaningful happens through conversation and that you change the way you lead, love, and communicate the moment you take responsibility for the energy you show up with every day.

Justin’s experience has taken him from the public school classroom to coaching NCAA athletes to developing leaders in Fortune 500 organizations across the world. He has earned a master’s degree in education, became a faculty member for the Institute for Organization Management, has expertise in body language and executive presence, and he is a member of the International Coaching Federation and National Speaker’s Association. Justin’s high-energy style will keep you engaged and his message will challenge you to communicate and lead more effectively.
