

RICK HOWE, IOM

Vice President

Jackson Hole Chamber of Commerce

Jackson, WY

rick@jacksonholechamber.com

(307) 201-2294

Rick Howe is currently Vice President of the Jackson Hole Chamber of Commerce and is a graduate of the US Chamber of Commerce Institute for Organization Management. Rick teaches and speaks throughout the country providing the latest updates and trends in all areas of organizational health with main focuses on customer service, business culture, strategy and ethics.

Rick currently serves on the US Chamber Foundation's Board of Regents and Faculty. Rick has held top level positions within his community, state and nationally. Rick has been Awarded Lifetime Ambassadorships, and is Recipient of Numerous National Leadership & Achievement Awards.

Rick's business ventures have led to industry top level performances and awards in the operations and management of hotels, restaurants and rock bands. His efforts have included successful global marketing and touring operations for the famous and infamous. He has special expertise in operational planning, business and program management, resource allocation, staffing and financial administration, formulating and implementing effective solutions and resolving complex challenges.