

U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FOUNDATION

Katelynne Cox

Associate Manager, Institute for Organization Management,
U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation

Katelynne Cox is an Associate Manager with Institute for Organization Management, a four-year educational program on nonprofit management of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation.

Cox is responsible for managing Institute's state society partnerships, event logistics and planning, fundraising, scholarships and incentive programs, and registration system management. Institute, the industry leader in nonprofit education, is an inspiring and thought provoking program for association and chamber executives seeking to expand their peer groups, learn about industry trends, and meet some of the country's most innovative business thinkers. The program, which meets one week per year over a four-year period, is held at five different university locations across the country.

Cox received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Interdisciplinary Studies with focuses in Communication and Political Science, as well as two graduate certificates in Public Management and Nonprofit Management from the University of Missouri.

Institute for Organization Management

1615 H Street, NW
Washington, DC 20062
202-463-5802
institute.uschamber.com

Institute for Organization Management is the professional development program of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation. It is the premier nonprofit professional development program for association and chamber professionals, fostering individual growth through interactive learning and networking opportunities.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation is dedicated to strengthening America's long-term competitiveness. We educate the public on the conditions necessary for business and communities to thrive, how business positively impacts communities, and emerging issues and creative solutions that will shape the future.