

KRISTI TRADER

Founder and Lead Facilitator

Feel Be Do Good

Jackson, MI

kristi@feelbedogood.com

517-414-2995

"Kristi Trader is an outstanding and skilled facilitator. She created an atmosphere in which all participants felt welcome and valued. Her engaging personality, sense of humor, genuine compassion, passionate leadership and thorough knowledge created an attractive environment."

Kristi Trader founded Feel Be Do Good, a consulting company that customizes curriculum for all ages, cradle to career, with the intent of building cultures that are happy, healthy, and whole. In her fifteen plus years of experience, she has facilitated executive consulting and team development services to the Department of Veterans Affairs, Chambers of Commerce, Elementary Schools, Middle Schools, High Schools, Colleges and Universities, Hospitals and Healthcare Organizations, Dental Practices, Software and eLearning Design Companies, Financial Institutions, Churches, and Spiritual Organizations.

Specific expertise includes establishing an intentional and safe organizational culture; strategic planning; leadership development; building and sustaining healthy relationships through effective communication and understanding personality preferences, trauma, and diversity; staff engagement; talent management including performance review, learning management, and compensation systems; quality management including project management and process improvement; policies and procedures; board governance; volunteer development; accreditation; branding; and community relationships.

Kristi graduated summa cum laude from Concordia University with a Master of Science in Organizational Leadership and Administration. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Management from Spring Arbor University, and an Associate of Arts from North Central University.

Website: <http://feelbedogood.com/>