

U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FOUNDATION

Katelynne G. Cox, IOM, CNC, CNE

Manager, Institute for Organization Management,
U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation

Katelynne Cox is a manager with Institute for Organization Management, a four-year educational program on nonprofit management of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation.

Cox is responsible for managing Institute's fundraising efforts, scholarship and incentive programs, social media, state society partnerships, event logistics and planning, and registration system management. Institute, the industry leader in nonprofit education, is an inspiring and thought-provoking program for association and chamber executives seeking to expand their peer groups, learn about industry trends, and meet some of the country's most innovative business thinkers. The program, which meets one week per year over a four-year period, is held at four different university locations across the country.

Cox received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Interdisciplinary Studies with focuses in Communication and Political Science, as well as two graduate certificates in Public Management and Nonprofit Management from the University of Missouri. She is a 2019 graduate of Institute for Organization Management and received her Certified Nonprofit Consultant (CNC) credential and her Certified Nonprofit Executive (CNE) credential in 2020.

Institute for Organization Management

1615 H Street, NW
Washington, DC 20062
202-463-3136

institute.uschamber.com

---

Institute for Organization Management is the professional development program of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation. Institute was designed to enhance individual performance, elevate professional standards, and recognize association, chamber of commerce, and other nonprofit professionals who demonstrate the knowledge essential to the practice of nonprofit management.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation (USCCF) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit affiliate of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce dedicated to strengthening America's long-term competitiveness by addressing developments that affect our nation, our economy, and the global business environment.